THREE ARRESTS FOR ROBBING BANK

(Special from United Press.)

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Three men have been placed under arrest here suspected of being implicated in the attempt made early to-day to rob the vaults of Robbins, Rurall & Company's banking establishment at Lakeville, Conn.

The doors of the vault were blown open and the interior of the bank wrecked by the dynamite, but the noise frightened the robbers before they succeeded in getting at the money. Several men are believed to have been implicated in the plot.

Deputy Sheriff Perry, who lives three doors from the bank, and other residents of Lakeville, were awakened by the force of the blast that had been placed in the vault.

Perry seized his revolver and dashed toward the bank, followed by a number of other residents, all heavily armed. The "lookout" warned the robbers of the approach of the posse and the men made a dash from the bank and jumped into a waiting automobile.

Perry opened fire on the robbers as they sped away in the machine, and all the members of the posse fired, apparently without effect.

There was $5,000 in money in the vaults and bank officials to-day declare that several fortunes in rare jewelry were locked up in safety deposit boxes inside the vaults. All this would have been loot of the robbers and they not been frightened away for the vault was literally blown to bits.

The three men who were arrested here appeared to have been tramps. They were taken off a Central New England freight train and are being held. The proof against them is weak.

One Legged Man Dies From Injury

Patrick McNamara, who was brought to St. Vincent's hospital on the morning of August 20, suffering from a concussion of the brain, died there Wednesday night. The funeral, at which Rev. Earl H. Kenyon will officiate, will take place tomorrow.

Patrick McNamara had been a cripple for many years, having been forced to use a wooden leg. He was employed as a laborer doing odd jobs here and there about the city. It was never ascertained definitely how his injury occurred, as he was found unconscious in the street near Bull's Head and taken to the hospital in the ambulance. It is supposed that he fell and struck his head against the curb.

RETURNED FROM THE WEST

One of the Hamilton Bros. of 848 Broad street has just returned from Iowa with two car loads of very fine horses one car load for New Haven and one for Bridgeport on sale at their auction Saturday.

Mrs. Elijah Middlebrook of Long Hill died yesterday morning at Dr. Wright's private hospital on Myrtle avenue. Mrs. Middlebrook's husband and only daughter, were drowned a few years ago at St. Mary's-by-the-Sea. She is survived by four sons, Elijah, Robert, Charles and John.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kennelly and son of 54 James street, left on Saturday for a vacation to be spent through the Berkshires and Vermont.

Straw Hat's Doom Police Chief's Edict

Pittsburg, Sept. 10.—Thomas A. McQuade, Superintendent of Police, has issued a proclamation to the people of Pittsburg on the straw hat question, which reads as follows:

"Whereas, The people of Pittsburg are approaching that season of the year when the wind whistles through the brush and the furnace begs for food; and

"Whereas, Hay lids and straw roofs are beginning to look like last year's birds' nests;

I, Thomas A. McQuade, Superintendent of Police, of the City of Pittsburg, do hereby announce and proclaim that on and after Sept. 15, it shall be strictly a gross violation of the fashions' law for any man in the City of Pittsburg, County Allegheny, and State of Pennsylvania, knowingly, willingly or intentionally to wear, display, flaunt or otherwise aid, abet, or encourage the wearing, displaying, or exhibiting of the personal adornment to the head known as the straw hat; and it is further Proclaimed, that any one who gets under one of these hats will expose himself to the efforts of his fellow-citizens in getting over hats aforesaid by stepping, jumping or leaping on said hat.

Given under my hand and the appended seal this 9th day of September. THOMAS A. McQUADE, Superintendent of Police.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY AID.

NEW RECORDS ALMOST CERTAIN IN THIS MEET

Among the athletes who are to compete in the Connecticut Y. M. C. A. Championships at Seaside Park Saturday afternoon Sept. 18th, is Frank Barnikow of Meriden who is acclaimed the fastest distance runner in the state to-day. His record in a ten mile race from scratch is 57 minutes, 36 seconds. Barnikow's chief competitor will be J. J. Lickitt the Marathon runner from New Haven who has made records in the fifteen and twenty mile spurts. McClellan of this city will also enter for the long distance.

In the quarter mile is entered Smith and Butcher of New Haven the former making the distance in 53.45 seconds. Spector of Hartford who collapsed at the recent meet of the United Irish Societies at Steeplechase after cutting down the big lead of the local relay team will enter in this event.

Harry Porter has developed the local lads into the art of high jumping. Some good records being run up by the amateurs. Martyn of Stamford who has the record for high jumping will have to look to his laurels.

New Haven seems to have a mortgage on the mile run. McKee has turned a mile in close to 4:30 which is 8.45 seconds better than the National Y. M. C. A. record, which is in danger of falling when Mac hits the track.

LARGE SLATE FOR CRIMINAL COURT

"Hello, Dearie" Man's Case Set for Trial—Fasciano Will Be Tried on Murder Charge.

There are 56 prisoners now in the North avenue jail and five in the jail in Danbury, besides a large number out on bail, who are to have their cases heard in the coming term of the Criminal Superior Court which convenes Tuesday with Judge William F. Williams on the bench. The jury panel summoned follows: Samuel W. Gledhill, Edson N. Hawley and Henry T. Hawley, Brookfield; Abram Baldwin and L. Beach Clark, Bethel; Patrick Fahey, Charles Sherwood and Ellison F. Wheeler, Fairfield; Cassella V. Brothwell and Clarence H. Bradley, August Greenwald, Zina C. Beal and Benjamin P. Bentley, Huntington; and Fred S. Lockwood and Horace W. Graves, Stamford.

There is only one murder case on the slate, that of Louis Fasciano of the city, charged with the killing of Antonio Pizuto on July 5. Another interesting case is that of David Flanagan, also of this city, charged with a serious crime. David is the celebrated "Hello Dearie" man, who appealed a case from the city court to the common pleas court and received a heavier fine for insulting young girls. His present case is more serious, but of about the same nature. It is believed that he is demented. The list of prisoners at the North avenue jail includes:

Bridgeport—Robert L. Kresger, false pretense; Louis Fasciano, murder, first degree; Edward Bennett, burglary; Michael Turro, attempt to kill; Raffi Basley, indecent assault; Samuel J. Huff, attempt to kill; James Woodsey, forgery; William Cairns, forgery; John Stintulis, attempt to rape; Archie Ryles, burglary; Walter Tunber, attempt to kill; Alexander Owens, embezzlement; Thomas Frupis, theft; Frank Strosinski, burglary; John Marchinski, burglary; Hector McSeane, false pretense; John J. Brady, attempt to kill; Mary Donnelly, theft; William G. Boyce, embezzlement; Frank Ballog, bigamy; David Flanagan, violation of Sec. 1299; John Reiter, robbery; Andrew Massalaueri, attempt to kill; Lizzie Downes, violation of Sec. 1153; Henry Roberts, false pretense; Henry Horvics, attempt to murder; Andrew Smith, burglary; James Buono, burglary; Charles Morgen, burglary; William Dorcasce, burglary; William Stanton, attempt at murder; Stamford—Joseph Bloom, theft; Catherine Saunders, theft from person; Terrence McKenna, theft; Peter Gallagher, theft of poultry; Edward Burke, theft from person; Richard Vaughn, burglary; Giovanni Seronito, attempt to kill; Frank Serenti, attempt to kill; Nicola Lalley, horse theft; William Weeks, attempt at burglary; Antonio Depero, indecent assault; Jacob Mokety, theft.

Trumbull—E. L. Vanderberg, embezzlement; William Burt, theft. Greenwich—James Daniels, burglary; Barney Bendison, attempt to kill; Guiseppe Falto, forgery. Huntington—John Burke, attempt to rob; Martin Cody, attempt to murder. Fairfield—William Coulter, burglary; John Black, non-support. Newtown—John Bohann, carrying concealed weapons. Westport—Michael White, horse theft.

Out on Bonds. Bridgeport—Louis Costa, attempt to kill; August Costa, attempt to kill; George White, attempt to kill; Louis Frazier, attempt to kill; Benjamin Whempand, violation Sec. 1153. Brookfield—Herbert H. Main, burglary. Huntington—Wadsworth Dubroski, attempt to rape.
